Provided that if a subscriber resigns within five years of his admission to the Fund, except on account of illness or any other cause which the Board may consider sufficient or has been dismissed from service of the Board, the Board may deduct from the sum standing at his credit in the Fund the whole or any part of the contribution made by it to his fund and the interest thereon.

Provided further that with the sanction of the Chief Commissioner, the Board may contribute to the fund of each subscriber an amount less than the amount of his subscription.

11. Advances from the Fund.—(1) The controlling officer may with the sanction of the Board grant a temporary advance from the amount standing to his credit in the fund not exceeding three month's basic pay or half the accumulations at his credit i.e. the amount contributed by the subscriber including interest accrued thereon whichever is less, to the subscriber, for any of the following purposes:—

14. Misuse of Temporary Advance.—Notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations if the controlling officer is satisfied that money drawn as an advance from the Fund under Regulation 11 has been utilized for a purpose other than that for which sanction was given, the advance shall, with interest calculated in the manner provided in Sub-Regulation (2) of Regulation 13, forthwith be repaid by the subscriber to the Fund, or in default, be ordered to be recovered by the deduction in lumpsum from the salary of the subscriber. If the total amount to be repaid be more than half the subscriber's monthly salary, recoveries shall be made in monthly instalments of moiety of his salary till the entire amount recoverable be repaid by him.

(2) If no such nomination subsists or such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to the credit of the subscriber in the fund, the whole amount or part thereof to which the nomination does not relate shall be payable:

(a) If it does not exceed five thousand rupees, to any person appearing to the Board to be otherwise entitled to receive it, and (b) if it exceeds five thousand rupees, to any person who produces probate or letters of administration evidencing the grant to him of the administration of the estate of the deceased or a certificate granted under the Indian Succession Act, 1925, entitling the holder thereof to receive payment of the amount.
